- Question reviewers
- Writers and reviewers to work on learning materials

We are looking for dedicated, organised individuals, with extensive industry expertise and a flexible working approach.

Candidates will need to be experienced in the chosen industry area they are applying for or have experience in training and development in learning programmes for that area. All candidates should demonstrate a strong interest in supporting new and existing professionals.

The London Institute of Banking & Finance is a leading provider of financial education and has been at the heart of the finance sector since 1879. We're a specialist university providing undergraduate and postgraduate degrees for students aiming to pursue a career in banking and finance. Our focus is on lifelong learning: equipping individuals with the knowledge, skills, and qualifications to achieve what they want throughout their career and life.

Before applying please read our Recruitment Privacy Policy found at the top of this page.

To apply please submit your CV with a covering letter explaining which industry(s) area and role(s) you are interested in, as well as your suitability, to recruitment@libf.ac.uk.

Please also note the following:

- The roles that need to be filled, and the special requirements of these roles, are reviewed on a regular basis, and in certain areas there may be no vacant roles at the present time. So please note that if you don't hear back from us this doesn't mean that you've been unsuccessful.
- Depending on the number of CVs we receive we may close the advert early.
- Due to the high volume we receive it will not be possible to respond to all applicants, but all CVs will be kept on file for a year should other opportunities arise.
